

44. The lesson Mummy’s Bump in year one is the only ‘sex education lesson’ in the infant programme. Whilst it is not a core requirement of the statutory guidance for Relationship Education, we believe it is an essential lesson. ...

Relationship and Sex Education Policy

Written: September 2018
Last Reviewed and revised: [insert date]

47. In the Junior section of the programme there are only two lessons highlighted (*) “where do I come from” in year 3 and “Puberty: What I have heard about Sex” in year 6; ...

Defining Sex Education at Primary School

48. ... under the current guidance these two lessons are not statutory. However, we would still recommend that children take part as we believe they are essential lessons.

Parents and parental rights to withdraw:	4
Policy on Menstruation:	15
Monitoring & Evaluation:	16
Safeguarding Children:	16